

Constance Kane

Constance Kane has extensive experience designing and implementing cutting-edge programs to catalyze global change, emphasizing women's empowerment and girls' education. Constance was awarded a Ph.D. at The Heller School for Social Policy and Management at Brandeis University. She earned a Master's Degree in Social Welfare/Social Planning from Boston College.

Constance has international NGO experience in Ghana, Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam, Israel, Mozambique, and South Africa. Constance has lived in Egypt, France, Indonesia, Japan, and Malaysia. As the Global Program Director for Oxfam America, she grew the Africa portfolio by 40%. While at World Education, she expanded the range of donors to include corporations and foundations.

Constance is on the boards of The Heller School at Brandeis, where she served as Chair for eight years, The Global Reporting Initiative's Stakeholder Council, Art and Resistance Through Education (ARTE), Berkshire Choral International, and Women Changemakers for Education. As the Founder and Executive Director of Women Changemakers for Education, she has overseen the program design, strategic planning, and identification of allies, partners, and collaborators. With the tagline "unleashing the power of women and girls through education, leadership, and fellowship," she is deeply committed to supporting emerging female leaders.

